[Metro Collective] by Zach Schossau, Josh Brown, Johnny McCormick

Verse 1

C
I hid and I tucked myself away I thought grace left me behind
F
And I let monsters rule my life
Am
oh how could you find a way to save A heart as far away as mine
F
How could you ever be so kind

Chorus

Am F
But there's No height, no depth, no space
C G
Just grace, upon grace, upon grace
Am F
Just a cross where a king took my place
C G
It's Grace upon grace upon grace, that saved a wretch like me

Interlude

Am - F - C - G

Verse 2

You're ripping me up out of my grave, so all my shame to go and die
Oh you're breathing in new life
Now there is no bondage in my way, it's only freedom that I find
Now I finally feel Alive

Chorus

Bridge

Am
With Blood on my hands, I see love in your eyes
F
You stand in the gap with your arms open wide
C G
this is my freedom, this is my freedom
Am
All I can offer is failures and pride
F
How can it be that you Stay by my side
C G
But this is my freedom, yes, this is my freedom
Am
I'm In awe of the love that I never deserved
F
You painted your heart (blood) on my canvas of hurt

Grace Upon Grace -

C This is my freedom, G this is my freedom
Am
You mend me together as I come undone
F
You break every chain, at the feet of the son
C. G
You are my freedom, you are my freedom
